“ I was so sorry I missed Mrs. Evelyn's funeral. She was my neighbor growing up. She was always the sweetest woman to me during my childhood. I have many fond memories of her. She would let me ride to church with her & always welcomed me in her home with loving arms. She surprised me a few years ago by showing me she still had an ornament with my photo hanging on her Christmas tree. It was over 25 years old.
I have the biggest smile on my face when I think of her, she will be missed.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear, loved one. Death is hard to deal with. Even Jesus gave way to tears when Lazarus died (John 11:35). But our Heavenly Father views death as an enemy and promises to put an end to it (1 Cor 15:26). We can look forward to being reunited with our loved ones again.
