“ In 1963, I moved in with my Grandma and my Uncle 'Big Mike' still lived at home. He was more like a big brother than an uncle, just like my Aunt Bobbie who was also living at home was like a big sister. Many times it was my job to wake him up in the morning-and man-we Flynns do love to sleep-so it wasn't always an easy job. He was a sweet caring man-really loved his mother and his children-and was a constant in my life for many years. He'll be missed! My prayers go out to 'Little Mike', Michelle, Melinda and all their families along with all my aunts and uncles who've lost their youngest brother. Wish I could be there in Kentucky with all of you during this time. Love, Cathy, Mike, and Michael
