“ Hello!

If anyone reads this, I am so sorry for your loss. Mike was a gentle GIANT, Big ole Teddy Bear! With a heart of Gold! Worked with Mike, and I loved, loved, loved him! To hear this hurts my heart, he loved his family and his beautiful Granddaughter. Mike really was fun loving, good spirited, never met a stranger kinda guy. Mike will be missed, got his wings. Forever Grateful to have met him. Mike was the kinda guy that overwhelms you in a GOOD way, a kind way, a lovable way, a respectful way. We all have memories, Mike's are most memorable in every way.

“ Mike,

You loved my Bestie like I've never seen a women loved... THAT made you one of the greatest men in the world. Now, you'll be one of the greatest Angels in Heaven. 🧡❤️ It's not fair you were taken so soon, one day we'll all get to see each other again.

“ I didn't know him long. But long enough to leave an amazing impression in my life! One of the best moments I will remember is when he pulled up next to me and Baby(my dog) and said ,”Hey! I thought Gibby was her boyfriend!?” Then made some remark that my dog gets around! Lol I'll never stop laughing about that! A smile that never stopped. It was contagious! I was blessed the two of you came into my life. I'm here for you when you need me my friend. ❤️

Lauren, first of all, I want to send you condolences from Amy and myself. We've been thinking about you all week and how you're doing. We wish you strength and faith. I myself and Amy are still in shock over this. I'm usually one to find words for almost anything, but with this, I literally can't. Mike Raymer was one of the very best friends I've ever had. I'm extremely lucky in that respect. He had an ability to light up any room he entered. A kind word always. I never heard him utter a negative word about anyone. He was giving, kind, jovial and happy. He possessed a gentleness that was unrivaled; for a friend, family member, a child, an elderly person, a dog or a kitten. His happiness lately has been even greater, especially with Lauren in his life and his granddaughter. Amongst all of the diversity he faced, and it was a lot, Mike maintained his class, his dignity and he relentlessly wore that legendary smile he was so known for. The world is a slightly less better place sans Mike Raymer. It's a little less lively and fun, and a little of the glimmer is gone where everyone who loved him and he loved is concerned. Mike bud, you are unforgettable. You are our friend. You are an inspiration pal. Even though you're not here physically with us, you'll always be a part of our lives. We wouldn't have it any other way. God bless you my great friend, I love you and I will miss you terribly. Godspeed.

Just a few words I use when I think of Mike. He was always willing to lend a hand, sit around a fire, laugh and enjoy a sip of the best spirits.

My heart is heavy. My family will miss Mike but we know he made so many lives better for simply being who he was. Our memories of the time we spent with Mike will always bring smiles to our faces.

Dearest Hannah.....we will keep a spot for your dad in our hearts. Every time we see you and your beautiful children, we will see Mike. He loved you most of all.

“ The last thing Mike did on Wednesday was leave my sunroof open in my brand new car, lol. And it rained. A lot. He felt so bad. Like I wasn't even mad but there was six inches of water in the cup holders and he was sitting on the bed like 'Lauren I am so so sorry.' Poor thing. He knows he could never be in trouble with me.

Mike Raymer, thank you for making me a part of your world. You are so special and I know you went out with so much love. I love you mostest.
