

Natalia Jeanette Kellough Wyne Stice

June 10, 1932 - April 15, 2016

Services for Natalia Jeanette Kellough Wyne Stice, 83, also known as Grammy or Tot, of Frankfort, will be 5:00 p.m., Sunday at LeCompte Johnson Taylor Funeral Home. Scott Patton and Danny Hall will officiate. Visitation will be 2:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m., Sunday at the funeral home. Burial will be 12 noon CST, at Fairmont Cemetery in Henderson, Kentucky on Monday.

A Henderson, Kentucky native, she was a paper route carrier for Evansville Courier Press. She was a teacher's aide at Rosenwald Elementary School and member of Camp Pleasant Church. She loved singing and listening to gospel music, traveling, and going to the casino. She was also formerly mother of the year in Henderson, Kentucky. She died Friday at the Golden Living Center.

Survivors include her son, Rev. Bruce Wyne, Frankfort; granddaughter, Maggie Demaree (Nate) Perry, Cincinnati; great granddaughter, Briella Perry, Cincinnati; and a sister, Linda Graham Sexton, Lady Lake, Florida.

She is preceded in death by her father, John Marlin Kellough; mother, Margaret Daugherty Kellough Graham; two husbands, James (Jim) Elvin Wyne and Donald Stice; and daughter, Sherry Wyne Demaree.

Friends and family will serve as pallbearers.

I will remember Tot as a smiling, happy person who was filled with love and dedication for her family. With good times and a few rocky moments, I will just remember the good that always came shining through. She always told people that she loved them. My last words to her, at Don's funeral, were, "I love you, Tot." I didn't see her again, but I feel the same. Maggie, Sherry, and Bruce were well loved.
