“ So sorry for your loss. I was thinking about the years that Norm and I worked side by side and a smile came on my face as I could not remember a bad time. All the thoughts I had were good thoughts and the things Norm would do to cheer people up, make people laugh or just help someone in need. It's funny that I hired Norm and when I retired in 2010 he was my boss. He always made people feel like you were working as a team. I remember the pride he showed whenever Kris or Paula walked into the shop. No matter who he was around he was always the same, trying to make people smile. Norm, you will be missed by more people than you could have ever imagined. Rest in peace my friend.

Also know that Norm is with his Lord and Savior. Stay strong like you two ladies have always been. You'll see him again some day, maybe even in his pink shirt.
