“ Don could be a strong-willed person. However, I believe it was his strong will and love of life that helped him fight his numerous illnesses his last few years. He was also a loving and generous grandfather. He was always there to encourage his grandchildren to do their best and help them in any way he could. He was not only generous to his family, but his friends as well.. He always grew a garden ten times the size he needed so he would have enough vegetables to share with his family as well as his friends. I sincerely appreciate the love and support he gave all of us. He will greatly missed. May you be without pain and rest in peace.

Love Gail

“ Hearing of Uncle Don's passing made me think of all the wonderful times spent at his a Aunt Bea's house when I was little. Uncle Don, my dad, and Uncle Hobert are all now together in Heaven, going fishing, which is something they all loved to do. Love to my aunt and cousins.
