“ Jennifer

Honey I'm so sorry to hear of the passing Obie.

I didn't know him very well but every conversation we had was very pleasant.

When we had time between the kid drop off, our conversations were generally about bible passages.

He was certainly a very well educated man and passionate about discussing things about the Lord.

I want you to know that you've been like a daughter to us. Always so pleasant to be around. We love you, and I think you know that.

I also know how hard it is to lose a parent. Grieving is such a lonely but necessary process to go through.

Please know your family is in my prayers. May you look toward God for comfort because He is the only one who can give peace.

You will see Obie again. The passage of time has stopped for Obie. He is asleep and resting; awaiting the Lord to awaken him one day soon.

When that glorious time comes, he will awaken, never realizing his life on this earth ended.

John 11:26 - And everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die.

There's a lot of comfort in that and a lot to look forward to.

Again, we love you and if you ever need anything, we are here for you.
