“ Pat and I worked 25 feet away right around the corner from each other in the EOC Building at Military Affairs. She was always so sweet, funny, kind and upbeat. If there was any unpleasantness she would say something funny to lift everyone’s spirits. If anyone brought their child to work, she was the first to say hello and hold the baby or get on the floor with the boy or girl to play or distract them if they were fussy. I am sorry I hadn’t seen Pat in 5 years or so, and wish I had! We could have given each other a big hug, that’s just how she was: warm and caring. My deep condolences to all of Pat’s family, prayers for you all and for a wonderful lady.
