“ I will miss the many years we were "partners" in the steam room at the Broadway YMCA. We developed a strong friendship. We comforted each other when we lost our wives.

“ Mr. LeCompte was the kindest man. He was so sweet to me when i was a little girl and lost my parents. I still remember him walking me to the store to pick out candy and letting me decide where to put flowers as they were delivered to the funeral home for my parents' funerals. He was one of a kind.

“ Paul and Betty were such good friends with my Mom and Dad, Doc & Emma Ellis. They are included in a large amount of my various childhood memories and it was definitely a "stroll down Memory Lane" to view the photographs posted herein. Byron, you and all of your Family are in my thoughts and prayers. Your Mom and Dad will be fondly remembered - they were mighty good people.

“ It was my honor to co-chair the WELCOME HOME committee with Paul LeCompte for Lt. Col. Ben Pollard after his release in 1973 as a POW in the Vietnam War, having survived the Hanoi Hilton since 1967. Paul was an unassuming gentleman and meticulously worked with out each detail with me as his 23-year-old sidekick. When I visited him about two months ago at the Masonic Home, he had the same demeanor, kind compliments, vivid memory of our task. He will remain a vivid memory with me. - Duanne B. I am very sorry for the loss of your dad. He was a gentleman and a kind person. He will be missed at Bridgeport and in the community. And, Betty was just the sweetest person to be by his side. Looked at the pictures and know why you sons are so handsome. Thinking of you, Margaret Hurst
