

Pauline Mae Davenport

July 5, 2024

Funeral service for Pauline Mae Davenport, 79, will be 11:00am Thursday, July 11, 2024, at LeCompte Johnson Taylor. The burial will follow at Bagdad Cemetery. Dr. Dave Charlton will be officiating. Visitation will be from 5:00-7:00pm Wednesday, July 10, 2024, and from 9:30am Thursday until the time of service, both at LeCompte Johnson Taylor. Pauline was born in Chaplin, KY to the late George Hellard and Orpha Mae Case. She passed away July 5, 2024, in Shelbyville, KY.

She retired from General Electric Louisville after 29 Years of service and Pauline was a member of Shelbyville First Christian Church. After retirement and re-location to Shelbyville, KY. Pauline made many new friends who became very special to her. Whether she met you at church, shopping at Goodwill or Kroger, or at aqua aerobics, your friendships all enriched her life in so many ways over the years.

Anyone whoever met Polly, knew a few things about her right off the bat - and that was her unwavering love and admiration for her family. Whenever she spoke of her grandchildren, she would simply light up with joy and pride.

Pauline is survived by her daughter, Mitzi (Chuck) Geveden; three grandchildren, Drew Pearce, Maegan Pearce, and Noah Geveden. She is preceded in death by her sisters, Ruth Waldrige and Brenda Collier.

Pallbearers will be Drew Pearce, Noah Geveden, Chuck Geveden, Wayne Hill, Kenny Davenport, Dale Nation, and Perry Kreutzer.

“ Ms. Pauline was a regular visitor to our annual neighborhood yard sale. We chatted many times about things that were for sale and why they were being sold as several families shared my yard space at the sales. Then she would say she had to go to goodwill and would be back. I enjoyed knowing her
