“ I met Phillip through his life partner of 17 yrs Connie Osborne. Phillip was a very good man he made me laugh, and always made me feel at home when I came to visit. He loved Connie so much and was such a great person to be around. He will be greatly missed.

I am just now seeing this. I wanted Phillips family to know that I have many good memories with Phillip and Johnny Rader. Whenever Johnny played music here and Frankfort, we would stay out to Phillips house. I am so sorry for your loss. Phillip was way too young to leave this world. I am praying for his boys and his entire family. Rest Peacefully Phillip “ Philip, Nathan, Andy and their parents lived right next door to us as children. We always played basketball on a dirt court in the back yard and played football in the yard and the Sacre’s back yard together. Laura (Mrs. Farris) was always tending her garden. We all grew up in Willowcrest, across from the Game Farm. Great memories of long ago now. When they moved to their farm, they were kind enough to allow me to hunt and Philip helped me drag out a deer I’d taken. Really really good family. I worked at the hospital when Philip’s twins were born and celebrated with a cigar he’d shared with me. So very sorry for Andy to have lost his parents and his brother and all within a year. God bless you Andy and God bless the souls of the three family members now gone to be with God. It is my hope they are all happy together, reunited.

So happy to have gotten to know Phillip in the last 10 years or so. Great guy to just shoot the bull with, no matter how many times he wanted to tell me the same stories!!! He had a zest for life and I'll miss sitting around the shop with him. Godspeed brother.
