“ Mr. Charlie and family: I have so many fond memories of Ms Reva and the family. Of Masonville Baptist with you all, all the fun in the big house on the hill. Ms. Reva was a very special person. Always had hugs for us. I can't say I know your loss, but I do know there will be a void.. Your comfort is Ms. Reva is no longer suffering, she gained her Angel Wings and they were well deserved. There was not a finer Christian Lady than Ms. Reva and she was such a blessing in my growing up years at Masonville. Please, know you are all in my thoughts and prayers.. Hugs to you all.. Love you all.

Dear Charlie - I was sad to see in the paper the passing of Reva. But, quickly remembered all her teachings on "what was yet to come and how wonderful and glorious it all will be." And, oh, so thankful for Jesus - that she is now living that wonderful and glorious eternal life. I will hold you and your family close to my heart in prayers as I understand the hurt of loosing someone you love so much. Love, Kim Muravchick Holloway
