“ Rhoda, when I first met you in South Shore, Kentucky, you were three or four years old. Black hair, black eyes, and dusky skin, you were such a beautiful child. You were quiet, shy and well-behaved. You earned a place in my heart for all time. When I saw you again in Georgetown, Kentucky, when you were an adult, I saw in you again the sweetness, kindness and beauty that I had first seen in you. My heart was full of love for you for the godly woman that you had become. I am sad that you are gone at such a young age. Rest in the arms of God, my dear sister in Christ! You have earned that sweet rest. - Bernie Parsons

“ Our dearest Rhoda! Beautiful, kind, gentle, thoughtful.. and always a faithful, Godly Christian soul.

Rhoda gave of herself and of her time to others. Always setting an example for others to follow. I have always admired Rhoda's ways. She was uniquely different. She was interested in learning new things. She loved family, even though we weren't always fair to her. Still, she loved. Every year for a long time, we went to Rhoda's house for her great New Year's Party! For those of you never had that opportunity, you missed out! She loved working outside in her little vegetable and glower gardens. I remember going to some of her in-home Ladies Bible Studies. And watching great movies like The War Room with her. And More. One of the last two times she was in the hospital, when my daughter and I were visiting her, we were gently rubbing lotion on her. I was softly moving her face. I leaned over and hugged her to me. I said, "I love you, baby girl." Her voice was weak, but she smiled and said, "I love you, baby momma." We both loved that and laughed together. I hope I never forget that .. Rhoda and my daughter were close through the years. We used to take our "girl trips" together when we could. It is so hard to lose Rhoda! I believe she is resting in God's chosen Resting Place .. a Special Place for the faithful who love Him.
