“ Met Robbie through a group I gamed with back while I was in high school. There was never a night of gaming with him around where laughs weren't heard from him being goofy. Never thought I'd lose someone who was like family despite never having really met him face to face. Such a good guy and you'll definitely be missed by your online family Robbie. Rest well and ill see you in Valhalla brother.

“ Robbie and I met in 2017-2018 spent years together almost every night playing Fortnite and discussing life and having fun. This man was my long lost brother we sounded almost identical and that's rare to find. I'll miss you bro I have suffered so many loses this year. My dog, my kids, my step dad my home and now you. At least you can rest now long lost bro. Love your lost bro Justin Wiczorek if anyone would like to hear his voice you can go to my live streams of Fortnite I been listening to our conversations for a few days now

“ I can't believe you're gone, you were an amazing person, who cared about people so much, I remember all the late night phone calls that would last until the morning that were filled with laughter and all the Fortnite matches we would play together and how you would try to teach me how to build and I just would never get it (I finally know how lol) and I still use the skin pack you bought me (ps it's my favorite) you would always give me the most real advice, you were just such a real and genuine person, and such an amazing friend, I'm so happy I was able to know you in this lifetime and I hope we get to meet in the next one and I truly hope you're at peace, love you Robbie

“ God, time flies ya know? I can remember it like yesterday... meeting Robbie on Fortnite through Joe, Josh, & Justin- he was rockin that Borderlands skin. It was through them that he joined our gaming clan/community & became apart of our online family. From there- it was history in the making with all the chaos, laughter, and sleepless nights. Through the years we gamed alongside him we watched him tackle his lows while taking in pride in his highs. He wanted nothing more but to be a great man for himself and for his family, & overcome all of his demons. Trust- we wanted that for him too. Robbie was such an amazing soul, so helpful & kind, and the listening ear when you just needed a good friend by your side. He was incredible in every way imaginable. He always knew exactly what to say to make you feel better and would do anything to make you crack a smile. The world lost a good one on September 3rd, 2024. He impacted every life he came across in real life + hundreds online and left his mark along the way. I wish I would have had the pleasure of meeting him in real life.

Thank you for always being there to help pull me up, thank you for never turning your back on me, thank you for all the little things you did just to make me laugh. Thank you for giving our little gaming community the chance to get to know you. But most importantly, thank you for allowing me to be your friend to share these memories. It was a treasure. Now, those memories are gold in my heart and will be cherished for many years to come. I am so thankful that Justin has streamed with you in the past so your voice can be heard whenever we are missing you- I listened to you laugh this morning and it brought a smile to my face.

Robbie, may you find peace and rest in paradise with forever sunny days surrounded again by your lost loved ones. God bless his family in this time & help their hearts find peace.
