“Rose Whalin, or Mrs Whalin as I called her was absolutely the kindest person I've ever met. I've managed and ran her farm since 2006, and she has blessed my life for knowing her. She always had a smile and I always enjoyed seeing her and talking to her. She made my dream come true, and there won't be a day that I don't think of her. The memories I have of her are endless. Like the day I went grocery shopping for her. I hadn't been in a Kroger for 20 years! Can't you see me running around, looking for specific brands and me not even knowing where the aisles are. Rose, I reckon I can be on a first name basis. I am going to miss you and thank you for the last 16 years❤️

I always enjoyed seeing Mrs Whalin when I delivered information about the homeowners association. She was always so kind. A neighbor on Whitebridge.
