“ I thought of Sharon as my Aunt, although she was married to my Uncle over half a century ago, and even though they separated she always was kind to me and my family over the decades since. Sharon helped my grandmother 'Baba' by doing errands and visiting, accompanying her to appointments and cheering up her former mother in law, quite frequently between about 1997 and 2008. In recent years, we spoke every few months on the telephone, and saw each other at Save-a-Lot. I am so sorry I didnt realize she had passed away until yesterday! My sincere condolences to Ron and all the family. Sharon was a good person, a sweet and caring lady who I will miss. Remember this is not the end, we will all be together again one day where there are no tears or pain.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Sharon's passing. Although we had lost touch through the years, she was one of my very best friends during my teen years in Frankfort. I have so many many wonderful memories. My condolences to all her family. ❤️ Judy baker sheeler
