

Sherry Wyne Demaree

November 30, 1951 - October 8, 2010

Services for Sherry Wyne Demaree, 58, Frankfort, will be held Sunday, October 10, 6:00 p.m. e.s.t. at LeCompte-Johnson-Taylor. A graveside service will be held Monday, 12:00c.s.t. at Fairmont Cemetery Chapel, Henderson, KY.

Ms. Demaree died Friday at Hospice Care Center, Lexington. A native of Henderson, she was the daughter of Natalia Wyne Stice and the late James Elvin Wyne. She was a former supervisor at KY Higher Education Assistance Authority. She was a member of KY Professional Business Women's Association and a member of Camp Pleasant Baptist Church. She was an avid traveler especially on cruises and to Las Vegas. She loved the sun, swimming, playing cards and gospel music. She was the best daughter, mother, sister and friend anyone could have.

In addition to her mother, survivors include her daughter, Maggie Demaree, Cincinnati; brother, Bruce Wyne, Frankfort, and step-father, Donald Stice, Frankfort.

Pallbearers will be Golnaz Shafeei, Dena Hermis, Melody Lendl, Lindsey Bailey, Jenny Smith, Corrin Gulick, Jennifer Barber, Brooke Miller, Marcie Malone and Kristina Vartazaryants.

Visitation will be held Sunday, 3:00p.m. e.s.t. until time of service.

“ To the family of Sherry. She was my supervisor at State Police back then. She was the most sweetest person. I remember her and Dana Winkle going out for lunch a lot together and I have never had a complaint about her. Sherry always had a smile. I will miss her. ##imported-begin##DonnaTinker##imported-end##
