You are the other Mother I received, the day I wed your son. And I want to thank you for the loving things you've done. You've given me a gracious man, with whom I share my life. Your his Mother and I am his lucky wife. You used to pat his little head, and now I hold his hand. You raised in love a little boy and then gave me the man.

“ *With tears we saw you hang on,
As we watched you fade away,
Our hearts were almost broken,
As you fought so hard to stay.
We knew you had to leave us,
But you never went alone,
For part fo us went with you
The day you left to go home.*

“ Aunt Sue your light shines on through all your family, your love and your caring ways. I will forever hold dear you to my heart. I am so thankful Hunter got to spend time with you and Uncle Butch those three summers we were there. I can't imagine one of you without the other, please keep giving him signs your here to always guide him, maybe not physically but your spirit no one can tame. I know you will always be talking to him in your own special way. You truly are an Angel you always have been. We will miss you so much you always had the best laugh and a joke or two to tell. All our love the DiGiacomo Family Hunter, Beverly and Robert
