“ Virginia was the definition of Mother and Grandmother. A true matriarch of her family. From childhood she gave to me the gifts of kindness, friendship, love and laughter. She was a pillar of strength and courage when life threw challenges her way. She never wavered and selflessly gave her love and devotion always putting others before herself. If you knew her, you loved her and your life was enriched and blessed beyond measure for it. I've never met anyone like her before and never will. Thank you for the wonderful memories and for making me feel loved. I will love and treasure you always.
