

Rev Wade Moss Hughes

February 7, 1931 - November 13, 2021

Funeral services for Wade M. Hughes, 90, Frankfort, will be held Thursday 12:30 p.m. at LeCompte Johnson Taylor Funeral Home. Visitation will be held Wednesday from 5 - 8 p.m., Thursday at 10 a.m. to service time. He died Saturday at Frankfort Regional Medical Center. Services and visitation will be jointly held for Wade and his wife Shirley.

Wade Moss Hughes was born on a farm at Bear Track, Lee County, Kentucky to Charles Tyler (C.T.) Hughes (1878) and Pearl Bryant Hughes (1895). His twin brother Burgoyne Harbison (Burg) Hughes was five minutes older than Wade. There was a life changing event, August 5, 1945 when Wade had a personal encounter with Jesus Christ at the Mount Olive Christian Church, Lee County, Ky.

Wade started pastoring in 1955 in Cleaves, Ohio; Covington, Ky, Nevada, Indiana, Bethel, OH, Oliver Springs, TE, Jellico, TE, Springfield, IL, Middlesboro, KY, Lynch, KY and at West Frankfort Church of God for forty-two years. He graduated with honors from UK in 1984 and attended Asbury.

Wade married Delores Margaret Sumner Hughes, who died in 1998. To this union was born Charles Edward (Kathy) Hughes, Lexington, Wade Martin (Linda) Hughes, Sr., Smiths Grove, Timothy Wayne (Marsha) Hughes, Benham, Ky, Nina Faye (Jeff) Creech, Lawrenceburg, Howard (Dana)

Hughes, Lawrenceburg; nine grandchildren, nineteen great-grandchildren, several great-great grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

After Delores passed away, he married Shirley Parrott Tapper Hughes. They had a log cabin community he called Little Bear Track near the river in Frankfort.

Wade was a talented musician, artist, writer and song writer. His songs have been recorded by various groups. Wade taught minister classes and performed hundreds of weddings and funerals. He had a weekly local cable television art show and frequently hosted many TV gospel music programs. For sixty years, Wade and friends played music twice weekly at local rest homes. He ran a Frankfort food bank called Handfuls on Purpose and a food/clothing outlet in Beattyville, KY.

Wade's artwork is in many church baptisteries, Olieka Shrine and Governor's homes. He loved to paint people's old home places that were long gone. He received many awards for his work in the Scotia Coal Mining Disaster. Wade loved the church and would attend when they had to carry him in the building. Wade's wife Shirley passed away in the same hospital room a few hours after his passing. Well done my good and faithful servant.

Pallbearers will be Wade M. Hughes, Jr., Stanley Creech, Joshua Hughes, Timothy W. Hughes, Jason Hughes, Louis Hughes and Caitlyn Hughes. Please visit our website at www.ljtfuneralhome.com to send the family messages of condolence.

“ I spent 16 days with Bro. Hughes painting my old home place in Bald Knob several years ago. We got to know each other well. We were great friends. I loved and respected him. I now have a 50"x 100" painting to remember him with. I know he was one of God's children and I know where he is today. Thank God for Bro. Hughes.

“ Brother Hughes was our neighbor throughout my childhood. As a latchkey kid, I spent many an afternoon in his studio, watching him paint while I waited for my mother to get home. He was always so patient with me and my millions of questions.

“ "Grandpa Wade" was the only father-in-law I knew. He was always kind and loving to my children and I. He fascinated me with the stories of his youth, early "home school" education, self-enrollment in college and his artistic talent. I am thankful to have a VHS of his "Let's Paint" program and that several of his sermons can still be accessed on youtube.

“ Brother Hughes was Dad's best friend. They were two mischievous men together. Traveling to the mountains in his jeep and laughing about how close they came to driving off the hollows to picking up hickhikers and helping them. They played gospel music for many years for our local nursing homes and in homes for families with terminally ill family members. Brother Hughes prayed son, Brendon, back to life when he as a newborn baby with cerebral palsy and was removed from the respirator at UK. He did so many things for entire family, too many to even mention. I loved him with all heart and have so many good memories.

“ When my father died, I told Dad Hughes he was my only earthly Daddy now, and that's truly how I thought about him. I cherish the memories of playing music with him at nursing homes and going on "short" excursions with him that turned into all-day adventures. I feel very blessed to be his daughter-in-law.

“ I remember the time I was in Lowe's to get some wire cut and Brother Hughes walked up to get some wire himself. He farted in my direction and then when the employee showed up to cut wire he jumped in front of me to get his wire first. The lesson I learned that day was he was human like the rest of us!

“ West Frankfort Church of God was the first church we went to after we were saved. We spent many years there. I loved the passion he would sing the chorus Learning to He on Jesus with. He always said See you later if the good Lord is willing and the creek doesn't rise. He baptized our daughter and dedicated our grandson.

“ Anytime anyone got in the car with him the famous words when he put it in drive we’re, “And away we go!”

No matter what you’ll always be dear ol granddad And I’ll always be a real live granddaughter.

It’s hard to put into words what this man has done for me and my family. I know when he prayed- God heard him. No telling how many prayers of his saved my life. He would ask you the same question numerous times just to see if you would repeat your answer as many as he would ask. It didn’t bother me, sometimes I would switch my answer just to throw him off. No matter when I called, he would make time.

He wasn’t just a preacher, or just a man of God, he was Dear ol granddad.

I remember when Frankfort was passing the fairness ordinance. He spoke to everyone there and told them 2 bulls cannot make a calf. Very wise indeed!

He was definitely teaching all of those sinners what Christianity is all about. You could just feel the neighborly love in the air. I imagine after his open arms speech there were many converted souls that night.
