“ I married Bill's little sister DD in 1983. Bill and his family treated me better than my own family did. Bill hired me to work for him one summer, and I still remember us riding to jobs together, telling stories to each other. We always laughed a lot when we were together. I'll miss him.

(We) may disagree about life after death and life before birth. But we all know there is life after birth. That's what we've got to focus on.

“ I sure do miss Bill. I have so many good memories of Bill serving others and making others laugh. He was a true friend and I'm so glad that I got to see him a few weeks ago. He had the same smile though weak in body. He's free from suffering now. One of the things I've thought of often over the years is that he never complained or felt sorry for himself over losing his leg. He only joked about it. What a great guy.

Our deepest sympathy and love to Mary Todd and family on the passing of Bill. Losing a husband and father is one of the saddest moments in life. We will not be able to be with you tomorrow but our thoughts and prayers will be with you. Bill was one of a kind, and I know his family has many happy memories to share during this time.
