“ My earliest memory of my Uncle Bill is when I was maybe 5 years old and he and Aunt Kenna came to California to visit. We played football in the front yard and Uncle Bill was the captain and Quarterback of my team and between us, we kicked some butt and took some names. That left me with an everlasting memory of my Uncle Bill and Aunt Kenna. May God Bless you and Rest In Peace!
Love, your nephew, Steve Hayes

My memories of my Uncle Bill goes way back when I was a young boy like 5 years old. My grandpa King (Homer) Bill's father and Uncle Bill took me to St. Louis to Sportsman Park home of the St. Louis Cardinals baseball team. That's when I first saw Stan (The Man) Musial) That's when I became a Cardinals fan. Later in life Uncle Bill got me interested in the New York Yankees when Mickey Mantal came to the Majors. Ever since I have become a die heart fan of the New York Yankees, and the St. Louis Cardinals. Thank you Uncle Bill and Grandpa King for making me the memories we shared. Not only was Bill a Uncle to me he was like a big brother and a second father to me in my life. R I P My Friend.

My first time to meet Bill was the day he asked Kenna to marry him. He was so cute in his Navy uniform. A few years down the road he introduced me to his nephew, Ron. At Ron & my wedding Bill was Ron's Best Man & Kenna was my Matron of Honor. Bill then gave Ron the keys to his car for the weekend for our mini honeymoon. Bill always has a story to tell and was always fun to be around. He always called Kenna his brown eyed girl and the love of his life. Bill, thank you for being a part of my life.
