“ Wilma and I worked together in 1975 at Kentucky Correctional Institution for Women. I was 18 years old, and she was a good mentor to me. When I saw her picture in the newspaper this week it made me remember that she bought me my very first iron. Good memories of her friendship. Sweet lady. Very sorry for you loss.

“ I have many fond memories of my times with Wilma. I can still see her laugh at my antics! I always tried to make her smile and I believe I succeeded in doing just that. She was a sweet, warm, loving person who cared about others. I will miss you always, Wilma!! God just got another Angel in Heaven.
